

Due: Friday, August 31, 2012

Name

1. Use the back of this paper to practice writing your last name three times.
2. Use the attached paper to practice writing numbers. Writing numbers to 30 is the end of the year standard for kindergarten. Writing numbers to 100 is the end of the year standard for first grade. Encourage your child to go as far as they can! Please have your child use pencil and correct any reversals.
3. Tell someone in your family the names of two new friends at school. Draw their portraits in the boxes.

Name _____

Name _____

4. Read with or to someone who loves you every night. Write the name of one person who read with you. _____
5. Look around your home and find an object that is each of the basic shapes. Write a sentence for at least two of the shapes. (EX. The clock is a circle.

1. _____

2. _____

Something that is the shape of a rectangle.	Something that is the shape of a triangle.